A Nurse Says: "Pe-ru-na is a Tonic of Efficiency."

MRS. KATE TAYLOR.

Mrs. Kate Taylor, a graduated nurse of prominence, gives her experience with Peruna in an open letter. Her position in society and professional standing combine to give special prominence to her utterances.

CHICAGO, ILL., 427 Monroe St.—"As far as I have observed Peruna is the finest tonic any man or woman can use who is weak from the after effects of any serious illness."

"I have seen it used in a number of convalescent cases, and have seen several other tonics used, but I found that those who used Peruna had the quickest relief."

"Peruna seems to restore vitality, increase bodily vigor and renew health and strength in a wonderfully short time."—MRS. KATE TAYLOR.

In view of the great multitude of women suffering from some form of female disease and yet unable to find any cure, Dr. Hartman, the renowned specialist on female catarrhal diseases, has announced his willingness to direct the treatment of as many cases as make application to him during the summer months, without charge. Address: The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.

BLUE AND GRAY ALIKE.

The Graves of Veterans in Arlington Decorated.

Memorial Bust of the Late President William McKinley Was Unveiled With Appropriate Ceremonies in Philadelphia.

Washington, May 31.—Decorations were observed here perhaps more generally than ever before. The announcement that President Roosevelt would deliver an oration at Arlington brought to that historic city of the dead a vast concourse of people, among whom were numbered thousands of veterans who journeyed to the cemetery to honor the memory of their comrades who had died in their country's cause, or who, having survived the struggles of 1861 and 1898, had passed since into the great unknown. The local arrangements were in charge of the department of the Potomac, and included a parade of all the 3. A. R. and other patriotic organizations, the decoration of monuments and graves, and addresses by men prominent in the affairs of the government. At Arlington, where the principal exercises were held, a national salute was fired at 12 o'clock by the 4th battery, United States field artillery. Music was rendered by the marine band and by the memorial choir. Upon arriving at Arlington, the procession marched to the tomb of the unknown. During the decoration of the tomb, by the special committee chosen from the different G. A. R. organizations and auxiliary societies, the marine band played an appropriate selection. A touching feature of the work of decoration was the strewing of flowers over the graves of the confederate dead who lie buried in a section of the cemetery. In the meantime a vast crowd had assembled at the amphitheater, where the services were conducted. Immediately after the memorial exercises at the amphitheater the monument erected to the memory of Col. Edgar O'Connor, of the 2d Wisconsin regiment, was unveiled in the presence of a number of his comrades. The address of the occasion was delivered by Representative John J. Jenkins, of Wisconsin.

Philadelphia, May 31.—The feature of the Decoration day exercises in this city was the unveiling of the memorial bronze bust and pedestal erected to the memory of President McKinley by the Philadelphia letter carriers and post office employees.

AT GETTYSBURG.

Unusual Throng of People Engaged in Memorial Exercises.

Gettysburg, Pa., May 31.—Delightful weather brought an unusual throng of people to Gettysburg to participate in the memorial day exercises. At 2 o'clock the parade under Hon. Theo. M. McAllister as marshal moved to the National cemetery. The children of the public schools headed the line and the grand army veterans brought up the rear. At the National cemetery the usual ceremonies of the Grand Army of the Republic were observed, after which the graves were strewn with flowers by the children and the veterans. At the rostrum Rev. D. W. Woods, of Gettysburg, opened the exercises with prayer, an original poem was read by J. Griffin Hall, of Baltimore, and the oration was delivered by Hon. W. D. Foulke, of Washington, D. C. The ceremonies concluded with a benediction by Rev. M. Coover, of Gettysburg.

WRECK OF THE MAINE.

Decorated With Flowers and Flags By the Cubans.

Havana, May 31.—When the people of Havana awoke Friday morning they saw on the wreck of the Maine the evidence of thoughtfulness and appreciation on the part of President Palma, who ordered that the wreck, which stands as a monument for more than 200 brave Americans, be appropriately decorated to commemorate the day. American and Cuban flags, garlands of roses, and wreaths constituted the decorations, and memorial services were held in several of the American churches.

AT GRANT'S TOMB.

Memorial Services Were Held in the Presence of 5,000 People.

New York, May 31.—Memorial services were held in the afternoon at Grant's tomb in the presence of 5,000 people. The exercises were conducted by United shrdg.IJ etaoin un ed by U. S. Grant post of Brooklyn. "America" was sung and Lincoln's Gettysburg address was read. Judge Thomas M. Jones, of the United States district court of Alabama, then was introduced and delivered the oration. President Roosevelt sent a wreath of roses, and the Chinese minister, Wu Ting Fang, a bed of roses.

Surpassed His Own Record.

New York, May 31.—At the games of the Greater New York Irish Athletic association at Celtic park, M. J. Sheridan, of the Pastime Athletic club, of New York, surpassed his own world's record with a throw of the discus of 125 feet 3 inches.

Ambassador Poncefote's Successor.

London, May 31.—Hon. Michael Henry Herbert, who is nominally secretary of the British embassy at Paris, will probably be the next British ambassador to the United States, in succession to the late Lord Poncefote.

BOOKS AND AUTHORS.

Goldsmith wrote "The Vicar of Wakefield" in six weeks. It is said to have been a story of his own recollections.

Charles Lamb would write one of his essays in an evening, after a day spent at his desk in the East India office.

The total number of books issued in Germany was for 1895, 23,607; 1896, 23,399; 1897, 23,861; 1898, 23,739; 1899, 23,715; 1900, 23,792.

Oscar Strauss, late United States minister to Turkey, gave Secretary Hay the copy of Oliver Goldsmith's "Life of Shakespeare" formerly owned by George Washington. His signature and personal book-plate are as clear as if written yesterday.

Helen Keller, the deaf and blind girl, has written an autobiography which will soon appear. Miss Keller is now a student at Radcliffe college. Her book, which is written in sign language of the blind, is said to be remarkable for the excellence of its style.

It is 300 years since Bodley built his library at Oxford, and the university is going to celebrate the anniversary. The Bodleian is the largest university library in the world and ranks next to the British museum and the Paris Bibliothèque Nationale in the number of volumes.

Dr. Schubert, of Berlin, thinks that he has discovered several unknown poems of Sappho in a sixth or seventh century manuscript among the Egyptian papyri in the Berlin museum. The manuscript is much damaged, but two of the poems, showing new metrical combinations, have been deciphered already.

M. Georges Leygues, the French minister of public instruction, having reformed French spelling and syntax by official decree, is going to issue an official French grammar, which will be the only one used in French schools. He has also appointed commissions to revise the Latin, Greek, English and German grammars.

ASIATIC AFFAIRS.

There are as many different dialects spoken in China as in Europe.

For the year ending June 31, 1901, the mortality in Bombay city was 102.23 per 1,000, the total deaths having been 79,350.

In the Japanese temples there is a large drum used in worship. It is called the kagura-taiko, it gives a tone much like a gong, and is used in devotion.

The kin, or scholar's lute, of China, has seven silk strings, fastened to the front of a lacquered wood board. Its length is four feet and its width eight inches.

Of the fruits wholly unknown in Japan until introduced from abroad, the apple has proved most successful, and it has become a chief product of some districts in the Hokkaido, or northern islands. The apples are of fine appearance and excellent flavor, and the trees yield a profit very encouraging to the cultivator.

There may be older cities in China than Damascus, but we do not know of them, and we do not know that there are none more venerable on this side of the world. Its origin is lost in the mist of the early ages. According to Moslem tradition, the foundations were laid soon after the creation of the earth, and Adam was one of the original town-site owners.

Calcutta is in danger of losing its principal landmark. The Ochterlong monument. It has been discovered that it occupies the only site that is really suitable for Lord Curzon's new Victoria memorial hall. Gen. Sir David Ochterlong, in whose memory it was erected, 1758-1825, distinguished himself in the operations against the Ghorkas, 1814 and 1815, and in other Indian wars.

LOST JURISDICTION.

The Fence Broke Down Under Judicial Weight and Changed the Law's Mandate.

Some of the supreme court justices have an inexhaustible fund of humor, and they frequently intersperse funny anecdotes with their solemn deliberations, once they are inside the sacred domain of their private session chambers, affirming the Washington Star. Justice Brewer is one of the most inimitable story tellers among them, and he told one the other day that amused his colleagues immensely. Out in Indiana, he said, there was a justice of the peace who owned a farm. One line of his fence formed the boundary of the states of Indiana and Ohio. Like others in rural districts who hold that office he had an abnormal appreciation of the responsibility of the office, and never lost an opportunity to exercise his prerogative of demanding that the peace be preserved. One day his son and his hired man got to fighting on a stretch of the farm near the boundary line fence, and the justice of the peace rushed out and mounted the fence. Then, with head cocked high and the air of one who has but to command, he shouted: "In the name of the state of Indiana, I demand the preservation of the peace!" Just then the fence gave way under his weight, and as he went down with the fence toppling over to the Ohio side he shouted to his son: "Give him the mischief, Jim! I've lost my jurisdiction!"

Mrs. Annie McKay, Chaplain Sons of Temperance, 326 Spadina Ave., Toronto, Cured of Severe Female Troubles by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Being a mother of five children I have had experience with the general troubles of my sex. I was lacerated when one of my children was born and from that hour I date all my afflictions. I found that within a few months my health was impaired, I had female weakness and serious inflammation and frequent flooding. I became weak and dizzy but kept on my feet, dragging through my work without life or pleasure. A neighbor who had been helped by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound insisted that I take at least one bottle. I did so and felt so much better that I kept on the treatment. For seven months I used the Compound faithfully and gladly do I say it, health and strength are mine once more. I know how to value it now when it was so nearly lost, and I appreciate how great a debt I owe you. The few dollars I spent for the medicine cannot begin to pay what it was worth to me. Yours very truly, MRS. ANNA MCKAY, Chaplain Sons of Temperance."
